Yonsei Mind and Memory Workshop
October 23, 2026
Yonsei University, Sinchon Campus
Daewoo Annex Hall, Room 203
Seoul, South Korea

Organizers: André Sant'Anna and Nikolaj Jang Lee Linding Pedersen

This workshop is hosted by the Veritas Research Center and supported by the Yonsei University Research Fund 2025 (Project no. 2025-22-0420).

–

09:00 - 09:30 - Coffee and opening remarks

09:30 - 10:30. Remembering together: Collective episodic simulation and sharing the past. Shin Sakuragi (Shibaura Institute of Technology, Japan)

10:30 - 11:30. The evocative power of objects. Christopher McCarroll (National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University, Taiwan)

11:30 - 12:30. Emotion as embodied construal: A two-level account. Michael Michael (Yonsei University, South Korea)

12:30 - 14:00 - Lunch

14:00 - 15:00. Reference in imagining. James Openshaw (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)

15:00 - 16:00. Ways of perceiving. Daniel Kim (Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Israel)

16:00 - 16:20 - Coffee break

16:20 - 17:20. How to be a monist about mnemic accuracy. Kristina Liefke (Ruhr-University Bochum, Germany)

17:20 - 18:20. Remembering requires reliability: Against Lai on mnemic reliabilism. Kourken Michaelian (University Grenoble Alpes, France)

- This talk is a part of the Yonsei Mind & Memory Lecture Series

19:00 - Dinner